Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. LINDER. Mr. Speaker, for purposes of debate only, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from New Mexico [Mr. SCHIFF].

Mr. SCHIFF. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Georgia for yielding me this time and I especially want to commend his integrity because he knew that I sought this time to criticize the proposed rule from the Committee on Rules. However, I do have to say that although I am critical of the rule, I still intend to vote for it for this reason: I think the issue of legal reform is very important. I think it needs to get moving in the House of Representatives, and the issue with which, the matters with which I take issue can be addressed elsewhere in the process. Any bill that begins has a long way to go before it ever is proposed to the President for signature.

I want to say I do not criticize the rule because it simply does not include an amendment that I offered. I offered an amendment to the balanced budget amendment which was not accepted by the Committee on Rules. Nevertheless, they proposed a fundamentally fair and open exchange of views on the balanced budget amendment which I think was perfectly appropriate even if it did not happen to include an amendment that I offered.

In this particular case, however, as I look at the amendments which have been made in order in this bill, it appears to me that amendments have been allowed which either the Committee on Rules believes will not be accepted by a majority in the House of Representatives or they do not care if a majority in the House of Representatives adopts these amendments. And those rules, those amendments which might change this bill in a way that the Committee on Rules does not wish it changed were not even allowed to be offered on the House floor.

There has already been reference to a proposed amendment from the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. QUILLEN]. There has been references to a bipartisan amendment that would deal with raising the damage caps on punitive damages, not taking the caps away, which I think the majority will not support, but simply raising the caps, which I think a majority would support.

Here is where I believe my proposed amendment is highly relevant. This bill is being argued in terms of a products liability bill, but it is only products liability in part. Section 1 of this bill deals with products liability. Title II, dealing with punitive damages, is not limited to products liability. In fact, it is not limited to anything.

According to title II of this bill, as it is now written, the Federal Government is going to take over the State courts with respect to punitive damages in every single case, no matter what is the subject of the case.

In other words, if two individuals get into a first fight on the front lawn between their houses, Federal law is going to govern how that lawsuit that might arise out of that takes place. Now, particularly to my Republican colleagues, let me say first I think that violates philosophically everything we have been arguing for the last 2 months. We have said the States can handle police grant block grants, we have said the States can handle child nutrition programs and now we are saying the States for some reason cannot handle the court system.

Further, we set the precedent that running the courts should be a Federal issue. And some day a Congress of a different philosophic bent can say there will be a Federal law on punitive damages which is there will be no caps on punitive damages anywhere and we will overrule and take away those existing punitive damage caps which now exist. If you can do one, you can do the other.

My amendment will simply have said the punitive damages proceedings, whatever it is, applies only to products liability.

I want to conclude with one respectful exception to the opening statement of the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. LINDER] which has been said by a number of our leaders, which makes reference to Mr. Ralph Nader and the Trials Lawyers Association. That approach reminds me very much of the others side's saying we have to pass certain laws to send a message to the National Rifle Association. I just want to say on this floor that I have voted for and against the trial lawyers' positions and voted for and against the National Rifle Association position. We should pass laws that are good laws and not based on whether or not they are supported or opposed by any particular group.

I thank the gentleman again for yielding.

FURTHER MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A further message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Edwin Thomas, one of his secretaries.

PROVIDING FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 956, COMMON SENSE LEGAL STANDARDS REFORM ACT OF 1995

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, for purposes of debate only, I yield 3 minutes to the gentlewoman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER].

Mrs. SCHROEDER. I thank the gentleman from Texas for yielding this time to me.

I am very honored to be able to follow the gentleman from New Mexico because I think he gave a very, very thoughtful approach to this rule.

Look, this bill is doing something very drastic. It is changing the entire legal system of this country as it has worked since the country began. And this bill has been written and rewritten and rewritten, and we do not even know who the final author is.

It has been like a fast-bill breeder reactor and a fast-amendment breeder reactor, and, as you see, they are now changing the rule one more time because they want to change some more amendments.

I think really we must vote down this rule because we do not know what we are doing.

Let me emphasize again what the gentleman from New Mexico said about title II. This goes far beyond product
